

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD OF GOD

Unless otherwise noted, the service is found in the red Book of Common Prayer (BCP).

Processional Hymn 362	“Holy, holy, holy!”
Opening Acclamation & Collect for Purity		BCP 355
Gloria	S-280	Powell
Collect of the Day		BCP 216

Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life which you have made known to us in your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

The Lessons (seated) Isaiah 6:1-8

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory." The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!" Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"

Psalm 138 (sung)

- 1 I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with my whole heart; *
before the gods I will sing your praise.
- 2 I will bow down toward your holy temple
and praise your Name, *
because of your love and faithfulness;
- 3 For you have glorified your Name *
and your word above all things.
- 4 When I called, you answered me; *
you increased my strength within me.
- 5 All the kings of the earth will praise you, O LORD, *
when they have heard the words of your mouth.
- 6 They will sing of the ways of the LORD, *
that great is the glory of the LORD.
- 7 Though the LORD be high, he cares for the lowly; *
he perceives the haughty from afar.
- 8 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me safe; *
you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies;
your right hand shall save me.
- 9 The LORD will make good his purpose for me; *
O LORD, your love endures for ever;
do not abandon the works of your hands.

1st Corinthians 15:1-11

I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you--unless you have come to believe in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them--though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

Gradual Hymn 381 “Thy strong word did cleave the darkness;”

The Gospel (standing) Luke 5:1-11

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

New Art in Gardner Hall

A watercolor painting of Saint Peter’s Easter Flower Cross has been donated to ECW by local artist, Jane McCotter. It is hanging in the hallway of Gardner Hall for everyone to enjoy. ECW is selling notecards of the painting. They can be purchased for $10 for a package of 6. A joyous reminder of a new beginning can be shared with those you want to remember with a personal note.

Saint Peter's Visitation Ministry

For those who are in a nursing home, hospital or unable to leave home, a visit from a member of the church family brings a bit of sunshine to their day. We are looking for volunteers to visit members and families in need of cheer. If you would like to learn more about the visitation ministry or if you know someone whom may need a visit, contact the church office or Laura Bliley at 252-495-3008.

Update on Open Door Community Center

Open Door Community Center, a shelter for homeless women and their children, opened its doors to receive clients on January 22, 2019. Two days later, during very cold weather, a woman and her children were admitted. This sweet little family eating around the table, quietly playing games around the table, and finally sleeping down the hall makes us ever so thankful for all the support the community has given to prepare this home to meet this family's critical need.

If you are interested in volunteering, the current need is for volunteers to stay from 9PM until 9AM as night managers. Night managers responsibilities include such things as: confirming lights are out as scheduled, the clients are awake in the morning and ready to leave on schedule, setting and unsetting the alarm. In the office is a twin bed where the night manager may sleep. The office can be locked and has a half bath available. More detailed information is available for those interested in volunteering, and the Executive Director is available to stay the first night with new volunteers.

On February 22, the community will be invited to an on-site open house at 1240 Cowell Farm Road. This will be an opportunity for ODCC to thank the community for its tremendous support, offer tours of the center, and answer questions. The open house will begin at 12:00 for specially invited guests and continue at 1:00 for the general public.

St. Peter's Episcopal Church's strong support of ODCC has helped to provide a warm, safe place for those in dire need and is greatly appreciated.
